JEANIE BUSS

GOVERNOR

As Governor, Jeanie Buss is responsible for running all aspects of the Los Angeles Lakers organization. Buss, who oversees the business and basketball operations of the team, works closely with President of Business Operations Tim Harris and Vice President of Basketball Operations and General Manager Rob Pelinka. In 2020, Buss became the first female Governor to win an NBA Championship, as the Lakers tied a league record with their 17th title.

Representing the team on the NBA's Board of Governors, Buss is currently a member of the NBA Advisory and Finance Committee and serves on the NBA Labor Committee, which in 2016 successfully reached a deal with the NBA Players Association for a new collective bargaining agreement.

Buss serves as an Honorary Trustee of the University of Southern California, her alma mater, and on the Board of LA2028, the group overseeing the return of the Olympics to Los Angeles in 2028. Named by the Sports Business Journal in October of 2011 as one of the Game Changers: Women in Sports Business, she is a co-host of Lakers All-Access, a yearly event presented by the LA Sports and Entertainment Commission (LASEC), a nonprofit organization which draws events and attractions to Los Angeles and also sits on the board of the LASEC.

Prior to joining the Lakers, Buss spent four years as President of the Great Western Forum before joining the Lakers. She began her career at the age of 19 as General Manager of World Team Tennis' Los Angeles Strings and, in 1993, brought professional roller hockey to Los Angeles as the owner of the Los Angeles Blades. Buss is also currently involved with leading the revival of WOW - Women of Wrestling, featuring female superheroes in the ring.

Buss is a strong advocate for mental health and wellness and was recently recognized for her work by receiving the UCLA Semel Healthy Campus Initiative Center Eudaimonia Lifetime Achievement Award. Buss sits on the board of the Shaquille O'Neal Foundation and supports Canine Companions for Independence, Apex Protection Project and the Best Buddies organization among her many other charitable endeavors, while also working internally with the Lakers Youth Foundation to raise money for Southern California Youth charities. In 2015, she funded the establishment the Dr. Jerry H. Buss Surgical Oncology Fellowship at Cedars-Sinai as a tribute to her late father.

ROB PELINKA

VP, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS & GENERAL MANAGER

After four full seasons with the Lakers, Vice President of Basketball Operations & General Manager Rob Pelinka has transformed the team DNA, constructing a roster and staff that earned the franchise their 17th NBA championship in 2020.

Pelinka helped make one of the most significant free agent signings in team history in 2018 when the Lakers added four-time NBA MVP LeBron James, following that with a franchise-altering trade that brought eight-time NBA All-Star Anthony Davis to Los Angeles. With other key additions and the hiring of Head Coach Frank Vogel, Pelinka had assembled a championship contender. L.A. went on to clinch the top seed in the Western Conference, the franchise's 24th Pacific Division title and the team's first championship since 2010 by defeating Portland, Houston, Denver and Miami in the 2020 NBA Playoffs.

Following the 2020-21 season, Pelinka got right back to work to improve the roster as the organization seeks to capture their next championship. He started the offseason by navigating a five-team trade and acquiring nine-time NBA All-Star and 2017 NBA MVP Russell Westbrook. Adding to the team's depth, Pelinka signed 10-time All Star Carmelo Anthony, three-time Defensive Player of the Year Dwight Howard, three-time All-NBA honoree DeAndre Jordan and two-time champion Rajon Rondo. He also made additional roster improvements with the acquisitions of Trevor Ariza, Kent Bazemore, Wayne Ellington, Malik Monk and Kendrick Nunn. Talen Horton-Tucker was also re-signed as the new Lakers lineup looks to win the 18th championship in team history.

Off the court, Pelinka has reignited the Lakers commitment to player development by launching the Lakers Genius Talks, a series of life-skills discussions for Lakers players led by luminaries such as Denzel Washington, Dave Chappelle, Kendrick Lamar, Allyson Felix, Dwayne Johnson and Elon Musk.

In his role, Pelinka coordinates all day-to-day functions of the Basketball Operations Department, helping to manage personnel decisions, contract negotiations, salary cap strategies and scouting. He oversees and collaborates with his staff on all offseason activities, including the draft process, summer league, free agency and training camp. In addition to these tasks, Pelinka also assists with various media relations and other management functions.

Pelinka joined the Lakers after spending the greater part of two decades representing many of the NBA's top players as an agent. Named by Forbes as one the Top 10 Sports Agents in the World, Pelinka's experience gives him a unique, player-centric perspective of the NBA landscape that has helped shape the core values for the franchise.

The Lake Forest, Illinois, native earned his business degree from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan with high honors in 1993, before receiving his law degree, cum laude, from the University of Michigan Law School in 1996. While on campus at Michigan, Pelinka was a member of the 1989 NCAA National Championship basketball team, taking part in three NCAA Final Fours (1989, 1992, 1993) for the Maize & Blue. In 1993, Pelinka was named the NCAA Walter Byers Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Upon graduation, Pelinka practiced corporate law in Chicago and then embarked on a successful career as a sports agent, representing some of the all-time greats and many future NBA Hall-of-Famers, including the Lakers own Kobe Bryant.

Pelinka, 51, makes his home in Newport Beach with his wife, Dr. Kristin Pelinka, his son, Durham (13), and his daughter, Emery (11). Pelinka's off court interests include trail running, reading and spending as much time with his kids as his work schedule permits. Pelinka and his family take great joy serving in leadership capacities at The Exceptional Families Ministry of Mariners Church in Irvine, CA, and at The Painted Turtle Camp in Lake Hughes, CA.

PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

TIM HARRIS

Overseeing Los Angeles Lakers business-related endeavors and marketing efforts for 22 years, Tim Harris brings more than 32 years of combined experience to the organization, currently serving as President of Business Operations. Responsible for the Lakers' day-to-day business operations, Harris oversees the team's sponsorship, ticketing, broadcast, marketing, game entertainment, media relations and community relations departments. Harris negotiated one of the largest regional TV deals in all of sports when the franchise struck a long-term partnership with Spectrum SportsNet in 2011 and is the team's driving force behind its radio partnership with 710 ESPNLA. Harris is also responsible for spearheading the Lakers' UCLA Health partnership, which led to the completion of the state-of-the-art UCLA Health Training Center in 2017. Recent career highlights for Harris include leading the negotiations to secure Bibigo as the team's first-ever global marketing partnership, one of the most lucrative partnerships in the NBA, and being honored with the prestigious 'Cult Brand of the Year' award at The Gathering of Cult Brands in 2019.

Adding to his extensive scope of responsibilities, Harris serves as a Lakers Alternate Governor and represents the club at team president meetings.

Beginning his career working for Dr. Jerry Buss in 1990, Harris was tasked with promoting and marketing the team's arena at the time, The Great Western Forum. By 1995, after much success in his role, Harris would become Vice President of Marketing for the building. Following the sale of the Forum in 1997, Harris was responsible for managing the Lakers transition out of Inglewood to the brand-new STAPLES Center as well as the new team training facility. At the conclusion of the club's move, Harris was brought on board to focus his efforts strictly on the Lakers, originally serving as Vice President of Sales and Marketing.

A standout soccer player at UCLA, Harris played four seasons as goalkeeper (1980-83), earning second team All-American honors in 1983 and finishing his career ranked third on the school's career victories list. He was later named to the UCLA Athletic Department Hall of Fame as one of the school's 25 all-time greatest athletes. Harris, who graduated from UCLA with a degree in sociology, went on to play five years professionally (1984-89), including three for the Dr. Buss-owned Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League. He was also a member of the United States Men's National Soccer Team in 1985.

An Inglewood native, Harris currently resides in Manhattan Beach with his wife Choel and their three children: Jude (16), Dane (14) and Gage (10).

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

JOSEPH MCCORMACK

Joseph McCormack is the Senior Vice President, Finance, and CFO for the Lakers.

In his position, McCormack is involved in all aspects of planning, budgeting, administration, development, governance and strategic initiatives for the organization and controlling ownership held by the various Buss family trusts.

McCormack joined the Lakers on December 12, 1988 when he was hired by Dr. Jerry Buss. Prior to that he worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers as a certified public accountant.

A Short Hills, New Jersey native with family ties to Wilson, Wyoming, McCormack earned his accounting degree from Providence College.

McCormack and his wife, Catherine, reside in Manhattan Beach and have two adult children (son Jack and daughter Ellen, who is married to Max), and one grandson, Bernard.

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

DAN GRIGSBY

Dan Grigsby serves as Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer for the Los Angeles Lakers. Dan moved in-house with the Lakers in 2014 after having practiced sports and entertainment law with several nationally and internationally recognized law firms for over 30 years, including having served as the principal outside legal counsel for the Lakers since 1990.

In his capacity as Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel & Chief Integrity Officer, Dan oversees and is responsible for all legal matters for the Lakers, the South Bay Lakers NBA G League team, the Lakers Youth Foundation, the Lakers Gaming NBA 2K team, and other subsidiaries and affiliates of the Lakers.

Dan is a 6th generation Californian, grew up in Southern California, received his undergraduate degree in Political Science from UCLA and his law degree from Whittier College School of Law. Dan lives in Pacific Palisades with his wife Karen, has three adult children (daughter Jenna, who is married to Charles Jackson, son Taylor, who is married to Gwen, and daughter Channing) and three grandchildren, and is a life-long Lakers fan.

VICE PRESIDENT, RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

JOEY BUSS

Serving as the Vice President of Research and Development for the Lakers, Joey Buss is responsible for exploring new technologies and strategies for business and basketball development. Buss is also in charge of the South Bay Lakers, the NBA G League franchise owned and operated by the Lakers. Entering his 15th season as President/CEO of team's minor league affiliate, Buss is responsible for overseeing the SB Lakers business and basketball operations for the team.

Buss and Senior Director of Pro Personnel Nick Mazzella work closely with Rob Pelinka and Coach Vogel to construct the Lakers Summer League and Training Camp rosters, while managing all two-way contracts, G League Call-Ups and assignment player decisions. The 2018 Summer League roster they constructed won the first six games in Las Vegas, en route to a second-straight championship game birth after taking home the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League Championship.

Behind the leadership of Buss, the SB Lakers franchise has established itself as one of the G League's top producers of NBA players, along with developing 26 assignment players for the Los Angeles Lakers. Former South Bay Lakers have earned 36 NBA call-ups. South Bay has won the division three times, making two trips to the G League Finals. Current Lakers player Talen-Horton Tucker has South Bay experience, while college standout Joel Ayayi of Gonzaga will join the team during his rookie season on a two-way contract.

Prior to assuming his current position with the South Bay Lakers, Buss spent a year preparing for his role as Lakers alternate governor, working closely with both Jeanie Buss and Tim Harris. Not long after becoming an alternate governor, Buss accepted the Larry O'Brien Trophy on behalf of the organization after the Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in the 2009 NBA Finals.

After graduating from the University of Southern California, Buss served as a coaching associate for the Lakers during the 2006-07 season and got his first glimpse into the business of basketball at the age of 20, when he held a summer internship in the basketball operations department of the nearby Los Angeles Sparks for the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

Away from the court, Buss and his wife Dr. Nicole Buss reside in Rancho Palos Verdes with their sons Benjamin and Oliver. Dr. Nicole Buss earned her doctorate degree in Occupational Therapy at USC and serves on the Board of Directors for Town & Country Nursery School.

ASSISTANT GM / DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

JESSE BUSS

Jesse Buss begins his seventh season in the role of Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting. In his role, Buss oversees all scouting-related matters for the Lakers and has an essential role in the drafting of players for the franchise.

At the helm of the teams' scouting efforts, Buss orchestrates the schedules for the scouting staff, and maintains a rigorous scouting schedule himself, ensuring well-informed and thorough decisions can be made on all draft eligible prospects each year. During the summer months, Buss and Scout Support and Strategy Coordinator Moses Zapata manage the pre-draft workout process, which allows Buss and his staff to take a closer look at potential draft prospects.

Prior to his promotion, Buss served as the Lakers' director of scouting from 2012-15. Originally joining the organization in 2006, Jesse spent two seasons as a basketball operations assistant, where he wrote scouting reports in addition to his local scouting duties. He went on to serve as a scout from 2008-11, working domestically and internationally, and then as scouting coordinator for the 2011-12 season, overseeing all scouting operations.

The youngest son of the late Dr. Jerry Buss, Jesse grew up in San Diego and is a Chargers, Dodgers, Rams and Kings fan. Buss resides in Brentwood with his significant other, Sarah, and sons Ashton and Jaden.

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL AFFAIRS

KURT RAMBIS

Kurt Rambis serves as the Lakers' Director of Basketball Affairs, after spending 2018-20 as Senior Basketball Advisor and plays a key role in assembling each roster, including the championship team in 2019-20. He previously spent 16 years in various coaching and front office roles within the organization.

Following a decorated playing career, Rambis initially entered the coaching ranks as an assistant on Del Harris' staff for four-plus seasons (1994-1999). Twelve games into the 1998-99 season, Rambis took over as the Lakers' interim head coach where he compiled a 24-13 overall record, leading the team to the Western Conference Semifinals. He worked in the team's front office – first as an advisor and then as assistant general manager – in 2000 and 2001 with both seasons culminating in NBA Championships for the Lakers. Rambis returned to the sidelines and joined head coach Phil Jackson's staff for seven seasons (2001-04, 2005-09) and for half of the 2004-05 season under interim head coach Frank Hamblen. Over that time, Rambis helped guide the Lakers to four NBA Finals appearances (2002, 2004, 2008, 2009), with Los Angeles winning NBA Championships in 2002 and 2009.

After the Lakers captured the 2009 NBA Championship, Rambis served as head coach of the Minnesota Timberwolves from 2009-11 and, most recently, spent four seasons (2014-18) as associate head coach of the New York Knicks, which included a stint as interim head coach in 2016.

A graduate of Santa Clara University with a B.S. degree in psychology, Rambis signed with the Lakers prior to the 1981-82 season and helped the club to four NBA titles (1982, 1985, 1987, 1988). Rambis would later go on to play for the Charlotte Hornets, Phoenix Suns and Sacramento Kings.

Rambis and his wife, Linda, reside in Manhattan Beach, CA, and have three children: Jesse, Jordan and Ali.

NICK MAZZELLA

A member of the Lakers organization since 2004, Nick Mazzella enters his third season as Senior Director of Pro Personnel, also serving as the General Manager of the South Bay Lakers for his ninth season. Mazzella works closely with Vice President of Research and Development Joey Buss, researching new strategies and technologies for the organization's basketball operations department, while overseeing the Summer League roster, two-way contracts and L.A. Lakers training camp signings. His South Bay Lakers duties are wide-ranging and include the day-to-day management of the team, serving as point person for all personnel decisions, negotiations, staff hiring's and scouting for the team.

FRANK VOGEL

Frank Vogel made an immediate impact on the franchise after joining the team in May 2019, leading Los Angeles to its first NBA title since 2010 as the team captured the 2020 NBA Championship in his first season.

With Vogel at the helm, the Lakers advanced to the NBA Finals after winning each of their first three playoff series in five games. The Miami HEAT forced a sixth game in the Finals, where the Lakers became the third team in the last 50 seasons to clinch an NBA title in a wire-to-wire win, while leading by as many as 36 points in the contest.

Vogel - the 27th head coach in Lakers franchise history and the 23rd in the Los Angeles era, has amassed a 94-49 regular season record in two seasons with the team. He has tallied a record of 18-9 in the postseason, while leading the franchise to its 17th NBA Championship in 2020. During the 2020-21 regular season, Vogel led the Lakers to the league's No. 1 ranked defense, which is the third time in Vogel's career that he has led his team to the No. 1 ranking.

He guided the Lakers to the league's best regular season start in 2019-20 and was recognized with Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for games played in October/November. The 17-2 record that Vogel's team accumulated over that span tied the franchise's best 19-game start in team history, and 14 wins in November marked the most by the Lakers in a calendar month since March 2000. The quick start was merely a sign of what was to come, as Vogel and his coaching staff later led Team LeBron to a victory at the 2020 NBA All-Star Game in Chicago, having earned his second career distinction to an all-star bench by compiling the Western Conference's best overall record through January.

In a shortened 71-game regular season, Vogel's Lakers amassed a 52-19 record, clinching the No. 1 seed in the Western Conference and earning the franchise's 24th Pacific Division title. The team shot a league-leading 48.0 percent from the field, blocked a league-high 6.6 shots per game and ranked third in defensive rating (106.1). Additionally, the Lakers tallied 13 consecutive road victories, tied for the third-best road streak of all time. L.A. went on to set an NBA record by defeating 18 consecutive Western Conference opponents on the road, thoroughly outmatching the previous record of 13 that has been held by the Lakers since the 1972-73 season.

Prior to joining the Lakers, Vogel accumulated a 250-181 record as the head coach in Indiana and was a four-time NBA Eastern Conference Coach of the Month from 2010-16, leading them to five NBA Playoff appearances, two Central Division championships and back-to-back trips to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2013 and 2014. His 250 regular season wins remain as the most for a Pacers head coach in the team's NBA history. Vogel then led the Orlando Magic for two seasons from 2016-18 and guided the team to a 54-110 record while overseeing a young and developing roster.

Vogel is a graduate of the University of Kentucky with a degree in biology. He initially attended Juniata College in Huntington, PA, where he was a three-year starter for the school's Division-III basketball team. An admirer of then-Kentucky head coach Rick Pitino, Vogel transferred to UK and became a student manager, playing on the junior varsity team in 1996.

After graduating from Kentucky, Vogel soon moved into a video coordinator role with the Wildcats. He got his start in the NBA soon thereafter as the head video coordinator with the Boston Celtics, again working under the future Hall-of-Famer Pitino from 1997-2001, before earning his first assistant coach role with the Celtics during the 2001-02 season.

Vogel has been an assistant with Boston (2001-04), Philadelphia (2004-05) and Indiana (2007-11), while also previously holding advance scouting roles with the Lakers (2005-06) and Wizards (2006-07). He remained as an assistant coach until the 2010-11 season, when he took the reigns as interim head coach for the Pacers and led the team to the playoffs later that season.

A native of Wildwood Crest, NJ, Vogel and his wife Jenifer have two daughters, Alexa and Arianna.

Most recently, Bertka was honored as the 2019 recipient of the Tex Winter Lifetime Achievement Award from the National Basketball Coaches Association, an honor recognizing extraordinary contributions to the sport throughout a career by building a body of work that has had a positive and powerful impact on the NBA coaching profession.

Serving as an assistant coach under eight Lakers head coaches dating back to 1981, Bertka brings a wealth of experience to the position, including coaching Laker big men Wilt Chamberlain, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Vlade Divac, Shaquille O'Neal, and Andrew Bynum. His talent as a scout and experience in player personnel matters make him an excellent resource for the team's basketball operations staff.

Bertka became the first full-time scout in league history when the Lakers hired him in 1968. When Head Coach Bill Sharman took over the team in 1971-72, Bertka began working with players while also adding advance scouting duties. That team would later go on a 33-game winning streak – a still-standing professional sports record – en route to an NBA title, giving Bertka his first ring. In 1974, he left the Lakers to become the first general manager of the New Orleans Jazz and also had an initial ownership stake in the franchise through his company, Invest West Sports.

In 1981, Pat Riley became head coach of the Lakers and brought Bertka back as his first assistant. Together, the duo constructed what came to be known as the Lakers "Showtime" era, guiding the team to seven NBA Finals appearances in nine seasons and winning four NBA titles (1982, 1985, 1987, 1988). Bertka remained as an assistant coach with the Lakers for two decades, later winning back-to-back championships under Head Coach Phil Jackson (2000, 2001). Following his final season on the Lakers bench in 2001, Bertka transitioned to a primary role as director of scouting, a position in which he served through the 2011-12 season while winning three more NBA titles. He continues to advise the Lakers as a basketball consultant.

Bertka has twice served as interim coach of the Lakers, coaching two games during the 1993-94 season and one game while replacing Del Harris in 1998-99. He holds a 2-1 career record as an interim head coach, and his 1999 coaching appearance made him the oldest person to ever coach an NBA game at the age of 71.

The Santa Barbara native is also well known for founding Bertka Views, one of the most successful college scouting services in the country, which he and his wife, Solveig, operated from 1961-1995. Throughout that time period, many of the nation's premier college basketball programs utilized Bertka Views as their sole scouting service. Adding another feather to his cap during the summer of 1992, Bertka served as a scout for the United States' Olympic basketball team at the European Qualifying Tournament in Zaragoza, Spain. Additionally, Bertka hosted Sports With Bertka, his own radio show in Santa Barbara that won three Golden Mike Awards in the 1970's.

In 1989, Bertka enjoyed the dual distinction of being inducted into each of his hometowns' respective Hall of Fames; In May of that year he was inducted into the Santa Barbara Sports Hall of Fame and just five months later in October, he was inducted into the Summit County (Ohio) Sports Hall of Fame, where he grew up as a child. In January of 2004, Bertka was inducted into the Kent State University Sports Hall of Fame and most recently, was an inaugural inductee into the Santa Barbara Basketball Court of Champions in June 2014.

The leading scorer in Golden Gopher history with 1,992 points, Thompson was the first overall selection in the 1978 NBA Draft by the Portland Trailblazers. In 12 seasons and 935 regular season games with the Trail Blazers, Lakers and San Antonio Spurs, Thompson averaged 13.7 points, 7.4 rebounds and 2.3 assists.

Prior to joining the Lakers broadcast team, Thompson co-hosted a radio show in Portland, Ore. and also worked with the NBA's Vancouver Grizzlies, Seattle Supersonics and Trail Blazers as a television broadcast color analyst. Thompson also serves as Sports Ambassador for his native Bahamas.

Thompson and his wife, Julie, reside in Ladera Ranch and have three sons: Mychel, a professional basketball player with past NBA and NBA G League experience, Klay, who won NBA Championships in 2015, 2017 and 2018 as a member of the Golden State Warriors and has gold medals from the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro and the 2014 World Championship in Spain, and Trayce, who is a member of the Arizona Diamondbacks organization and has played for the White Sox, Dodgers, Athletics and Indians.

SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

FERNANDO GONZALEZ

Beginning his 26th season as a play-by-play announcer for the Lakers, Fernando Gonzalez serves as the Spanish Voice of the team, broadcasting every game on Tu Liga Radio 1330, the Lakers Spanish language flagship.

Gonzalez is quite familiar to the Lakers Spanish-speaking audience as he also served as the news director for KWHY-TV and anchored the popular sports news program "Mundo Deportivo." Gonzalez has received several accolades for his work including the 1995 Golden Mike Award for best sports segment.

Not limited to basketball, Gonzalez has also broadcast a variety of sporting events including World Cup soccer, the Olympic Games, professional boxing, NHL hockey and Pac-10 football.

Born in Toluca, Mexico, Fernando graduated from La Universidad Autonoma del Estado de Mexico with a law degree.

SPANISH RADIO ANALYST

JOSE "PEPE" MANTILLA

Since 1993, Jose "Pepe" Mantilla has served an analyst for Lakers Spanish broadcasts, now serving his 29th season in that capacity with nearly 40 years of broadcasting experience overall. Most recently, Mantilla was inducted into the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame as a member of the 2021 class. The original Spanish voice of the Lakers, Mantilla broadcasts every game to the team's large and growing Hispanic audience, and has not missed a single game in his over two decades with the team. The Mexico native has seen the team claim six NBA titles during his tenure, which has included hosting "El Show de Los Lakers" and "Fiesta Lakers."

One of the most active sports journalists in Los Angeles, he is also a popular panelist for radio and TV sports shows, and as a result, was honored with the National Hispanic Media Coalition Impact Award in 2014. In addition to those duties, Pepe has managed to find time to broadcast the Olympics, MLB, the NFL, WNBA, the Pan American Games, college football and basketball, and a variety of soccer leagues and events, including several FIFA World Cups, MLS, the EPL, SERIE A, and Mexico's national soccer league. He was also the Spanish voice of USC Trojans football for multiple seasons since the turn of the century (most recently between 2012-14), and provided English commentary during the 2006 and 2010 FIFA World Cups for AM 570 radio, and 2014 World Cup for 710 AM.

A graduate of UNAM in Mexico, Pepe has one daughter, Mercedes, and one son, Andres from his late wife Ivonne, and makes his home in Irvine.

PUBLIC ADDRESS ANNOUNCER

LAWRENCE TANTER

Entering his 39th season as the Public Address Announcer for the Lakers, Lawrence Tanter is the longest-tenured PA announcer in franchise history and second-longest tenured in NBA history. Beginning in 1982 at the Great Western Forum and continuing to the present STAPLES Center, he has provided the vocal soundtrack to more than 1,600 games from his familiar seat at center court, including four NBA All-Star games, 14 NBA Finals series, and nine NBA Championships. His mild demeanor coupled with his smooth delivery are unique to the NBA, ranging from the dissonant tone sensed in his voice with lines such as "Too Many Steps" to the cool declaration of "The Laker Girls."

Born in Chicago, Illinois, Tanter was a member of an Illinois state championship team while at Thornton High School. He later played at the University of Dubuque in Iowa.

Tanter's role with the Lakers happened almost by chance. After developing a fandom for the team upon moving to Los Angeles in 1972, Tanter – a radio veteran by trade – began to envision a potential role as the voice that would bring the game to the fans in the stands. What started as a tiny thought eventually blossomed into the most notable role of his career when Jamaal Wilkes, a friend at the time, referred him to the team's public relations staff. Tanter, seeking any opportunity, sent in tape of his voiceover work, only to hear back one month later about an opening in the position that he has now held for almost four decades.

A jazz historian and enthusiast, Tanter is a veteran of more than 40 years of work at numerous radio stations throughout the Los Angeles area. He has interviewed over 500 recording artists, written liner notes for 20 albums, narrated several video games and done voice-overs for more than 6,000 commercials.

Retired from radio since 2011, he spends his free time gardening at his home or staying active in his community. For almost 20 years he has regularly visited senior living facilities to speak with senior citizens about jazz. On these trips, Tanter oftentimes brings books or albums to aid in his talks, adding that "it's another avenue to keep their minds and souls active." He is also involved with his local block club, where he aids elderly citizens in painting their fences, cutting their grass, or completing other work around their homes.

SIDELINE REPORTER

MIKE TRUDELL

Entering his 14th season with the Lakers and ninth as the team's sideline reporter, Mike Trudell will maneuver around the court and locker room for Spectrum SportsNet alongside play-by-play voice Bill Macdonald and analyst Stu Lantz.

Trudell also serves as the team's beat reporter for Lakers.com, as he has since the 2008-09 season as a full-time member of the team's traveling staff. He added sideline TV duties for road games only during the 2010-11 campaign and has been the sideline reporter for all locally televised Lakers games since the inaugural Spectrum SportsNet season of 2012-13. He also fills in as a host at the network, and makes appearances as an analyst for studio shows, as well as for the occasional L.A. Sparks or L.A. Galaxy game on Spectrum.

Since 2017, Trudell has filled in to handle occasional play-by-play duties for the South Bay Lakers, alongside analyst A.C. Green. Trudell also worked as a sports talk radio host at ESPN L.A. 710 from 2013-19 alongside Lakers radio analyst Mychal Thompson ("Thompson and Trudell"). He has filled in for Thompson as the analyst on radio broadcasts and called two games in 2019-20 for radio play-by-play voice John Ireland.

Like the Lakers, Trudell came to Los Angeles from Minnesota, where he was the reporter for Timberwolves.com from 2006-08. He also worked for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings and Baltimore Ravens, the Cologne Centurions of NFL Europe and was a play-by-play announcer for the University of Minnesota's women's soccer team, in addition to several high school sports teams. Trudell continues to do play-by-play for the G-League's South Bay Lakers, and for NBATV at the Las Vegas Summer League.

Trudell is a 2004 graduate of Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism in Evanston, Illinois., outside of Chicago, with a double major in history. He played Big Ten varsity soccer and also honed his broadcast skills at the campus TV (NNN) and radio (WNUR) stations.

Raised in Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota, Trudell currently resides in Redondo Beach with his wife, Annie, identical twin boys Jett and Talan, son Riggs, and French Bulldog Lyla.

LAKERS YOUTH FOUNDATION

The Los Angeles Lakers Youth Foundation is a registered 501(c)3 organization and the official team charity of the Los Angeles Lakers. The Foundation's mission is to help underserved youth develop their potential by providing positive experiences and resources in education, health and wellness, and sports. The Foundation also awards grants to other charities that support youth through direct services and programs in these areas.

BUSS FAMILY & THE LAKERS

During his lifetime, as a result of his considerable charitable efforts, Dr. Jerry Buss was honored by a wide range of organizations that included City of Hope, NAACP, the B'Nai B'rith, United Negro College Fund, United Indian Development Association, National Organization of Women, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Los Angeles Human Relations Commission, Heart of Los Angeles Youth and Special Olympics of Southern California. Following in their father's footsteps, the Buss family's philanthropic and community support is as diverse as the community in which they live and work.

The Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation annually donate hundreds of thousands of dollars, tickets, merchandise, and autographed items to support countless neighborhood schools, charities and youth groups as well as non-profit organizations which attend to the needs of communities in Southern California.

LAKERS LITERACY LEAGUE

The Lakers Literacy League is a free program for teachers intended to foster the joy of literacy in youth grades K-5 through engaging Lakers-themed challenges and creative projects. Activities throughout the program are aimed to help youth find the fun in literacy, ultimately building community in the classroom. Teachers register their classrooms to receive a monthly newsletter with access to three main activities per month. Members of the League are then eligible to win prizes for their entire class.

To learn more or join the Lakers Literacy League, visit www.lakers.com/community/literacy-league.

CAMP LAKERS

Camp Lakers, presented by UCLA Health, is committed to providing young players with the ultimate Lakers experience. For the last 20 summers, campers have learned the Laker way at Camp Lakers, honing their basketball skills and discovering the importance of hard work, teamwork, dedication, and sportsmanship, on and off the court.

Each day special Lakers guests and staff visit Camp to meet and speak with the campers. On the last day of the week, the campers take a field trip to the Lakers facility to meet Lakers and see where the Lakers work on their basketball skills. There they have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to play where the Lakers play, meet Lakers players and Laker Girls and see the championship trophies.

CHICK HEARN NIGHT

Chick Hearn Night has been celebrated at the Lakers home game closest to Chick's birthday every season since his passing in 2002. On Chick Hearn Night, the annual Chick Hearn Memorial Scholarship is presented to help two aspiring sports journalists pursue their dreams.

Since 2002, the Lakers have created sixteen Lakers Reading Rooms or Lakers Reading and Learning Centers throughout Los Angeles and Hawaii. Each site was remodeled with new carpet, paint, bookshelves, tables, chairs, sofas, children's books, and framed Lakers photos, offering children a safe and fun learning environment dedicated to literacy.

LAKERS "TEAM UP"

The Lakers Team Up program echoes the team's commitment to the community and gives Lakers staff the opportunity to get out of the office and give back to the community in a hands-on way. Once a month, Lakers staff participate in a volunteer event that supports the core pillars of Lakers Community Relations. These events are designed to make a positive impact in the community and encourage LA residents of all ages to volunteer and engage in community service projects.

GRANTING WISHES

In collaboration with wish-granting organizations, the Los Angeles Lakers regularly provide game tickets and arrange player meetings for children and adults facing life-threatening medical conditions. Over the past 20 years, the Lakers have granted over 400 special wishes for children and adults from all over the United States, Canada, and as far away as Israel and the Netherlands.

JUNIOR LAKERS

Junior Lakers is the Los Angeles Lakers official youth basketball initiative. With Junior Lakers, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation work with Los Angeles youth to develop fundamental basketball skills, teamwork, sportsmanship and community involvement, with positive adult supervision. The Lakers impact over 130,000 L.A. youth basketball players across multiple Junior Lakers Leagues with after-school programs including the Boys & Girls Club and LA's Best, presented by UCLA Health, as well as Playworks and After-School All Stars.

LAKERS CELEBRITY GOLF INVITATIONAL

Each season, the Lakers organization and some of their biggest supporters gather to raise money for the Lakers Youth Foundation at the Lakers Celebrity Golf Invitational. The annual tournament allows golfers the opportunity to play alongside Lakers Legends and sports and entertainment celebrities for a day of fun and excitement. After the golf day guests have the opportunity to meet current Lakers players and coaching staff at an afternoon reception, charity silent & live auction and gala dinner. The money raised at the Lakers Celebrity Golf Invitational benefits the Lakers Youth Foundation and enables the foundation to provide educational, athletic and recreational opportunities to Los Angeles youth.

COMPLIMENTARY GROUP TICKETS

Each year, the Lakers and the Lakers Youth Foundation donate several thousand tickets to Southern California non-profit organizations so that their members may enjoy a game together. Often, the complimentary group ticket is the non-profit member's first opportunity to see a Lakers game. Ticket requests can be made online at Lakers.com

STUDENT & EDUCATOR OF THE MONTH PROGRAM

Once a month during the NBA regular season, the Los Angeles Lakers honor three local students, two local teachers and one local principal for their outstanding academic and extracurricular achievements. All educator nominations are submitted to the Lakers online at www.lakers.com/community/student-and-educator-of-the-month by local school personnel or parents, and all student nominations are submitted by principals or teachers. Each honoree receives tickets to a Lakers game, a t-shirt, and special recognition plaque.

HEALTH AND FITNESS INITIATIVES

The Lakers are dedicated to helping their fans live a healthy lifestyle. To emphasize the importance of health and fitness, the Lakers sponsor programs that reward local students for being active about their health. Field Day with the Los Angeles Lakers, presented by UCLA Health, aims to educate the community about the importance of physical fitness and having fun.

The Lakers Youth Foundation is proud to offer local organizations the opportunity to host a free basketball clinic and fitness clinics for children in their neighborhood. The clinics are designed to promote youth basketball, be interactive, make physical fitness fun, and teach kids how to stay active and healthy.

A SEASON OF GIVING

The annual Lakers "Season of Giving," presented by East West Bank, consists of several events centered around the holidays intended to bring joy and cheer to local underserved communities. The 2020 "Season of Giving" kicked off with a Thanksgiving Drive-In movie event, then led to the Miracle on Manchester Turkey Giveaway at the Salvation Army of Inglewood where over 300 Thanksgiving meal necessities were passed out to families in need. The "Season" rounds out with a fun Holiday experience for families in December. Current and former Lakers players join the events to interact with the community and provide a memorable holiday experience for all.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

The Lakers and Pechanga Resort Casino created the "Hoops for Troops" program in 2015 to honor those that serve and sacrifice for our country. Hoops for Troops basketball clinics offer the chance for U.S. Armed Forces servicemembers around Southern California to receive tips from Lakers legends on shooting, passing and ball handling skills, as well as some friendly competition.

MENTORSHIP

By the time girls reach 8th grade, they are 50% more likely to drop out of sports than boys, creating barriers that can last a lifetime. Through Game Growers, Nike and the Lakers invite 8th grade girls to form teams and share ideas about keeping girls playing sports. One idea is selected, and those girls travel to Nike Headquarters in Beaverton, Oregon, for Game Growers Training Camp. At camp, the girls work on their idea and present it to Nike and all NBA and WNBA participating teams, before heading back to their community to activate on their game plan.

The Lakers also have mentor programs that pair staff with local high school youth to provide guidance, career advice and inspiration. Lakers staff serve as a positive role model and resource for the students as they navigate and prepare for their next steps.

BUILDING BRIDGES WITH BASKETBALL

Through a combination of civic engagement, voter education, digital inclusion initiatives, and internal programs, the Lakers are committed to being an anti-racist organization. Building Bridges with Basketball uses the sport to unite members of the LAPD with the surrounding community. The Black Action Network, an employee resource group, works to build inclusiveness and provide cultural opportunities for staff, including monthly Courageous Conversations around social injustices. These programs, among many others, are part of the Lakers' dedication to making profound anti-racist change in the Los Angeles community.

SOUTH BAY LAKERS

The South Bay Lakers will begin their 15th year in the NBA G League with the 2021-22 season as they remain one of the most successful franchises in league history.

In July 2006, the Los Angeles Lakers became the first NBA franchise to own its own NBA Development League team in the Los Angeles D-Fenders. Prior to the 2017-18 season, the D-Fenders became the South Bay Lakers, a move that was inspired by the prestigious brand of the Los Angeles Lakers while honoring the community that has hosted the minor league affiliate since 2006. South Bay plays its home games in the UCLA Health Training Center, the state-of-the-art headquarters for the NBA's Lakers and their G League affiliate. In the past, the team has played home games at STAPLES Center (2006-11) and the Toyota Sports Center (2011-17).

PRIMARY LOGO

Throughout the franchise's history, the South Bay Lakers have been at the forefront of the NBA's minor league movement. Overall, the team has established itself as a top producer of NBA-ready talent, totaling 36 NBA Call-Ups and developing 26 Lakers assignment players since the team's inaugural season in 2006-07.

South Bay did not field a team during the 2020-21 season but saw a multitude of players achieve personal success during the 2019-20 season, with three players receiving call-ups to the NBA, including Devontae Cacok signing a two-way contract with Los Angeles. Cacok proved to be one of the best players in the entire G League, tallying 27 double-doubles with South Bay and averaging 19.4 points and 11.9 rebounds in only 23.9 minutes per game en route to All-NBA G League First Team honors. Gary Payton II earned G League Player of the Week honors in December, leading to an NBA Call-Up with the Washington Wizards and Zach Norvell Jr. became the 27th player in team history to receive a Call-Up when he signed with Golden State in February.

Miles Simon will lead the team as the franchise's ninth head coach while continuing to serve as an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Lakers. Simon has twice led the charge for the Lakers summer league teams, leading the team to a championship game berth for the second consecutive summer in 2018, after taking home the 2017 Las Vegas Summer League title as an assistant on the staff. Since joining the Lakers, Simon has at times been responsible for the pre-draft workout process and has assisted with the offseason development programs for current Lakers players.

LAKERS GAMING

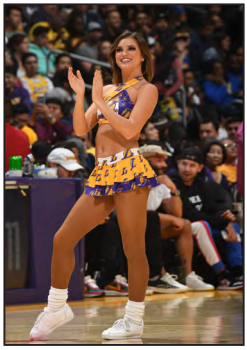
LAST SEASON AT A GLANCE

Lakers Gaming wrapped up their third season in 2020, and the year was highlighted by the individual performances of two of their top players.

Arshia "Krazy" Karimi was selected with the first overall pick in the 2021 NBA 2K League Draft and proved to be one of the most talented players in the league during his rookie season. Krazy finished the season averaging 14.5 points, 11.0 rebounds, 3.2 assists, 1.1 steals and 1.2 blocks while shooting 67.6 percent from the field.

Maurice "ReeseDaGod" Delaney was the team's most consistent player in 2021 after being drafted by the team with the seventh overall pick in the 2021 Draft. Delaney averaged 24.6 points, 7.2 assists and 1.2 steals as he appeared in every game for the purple-and-gold.

2021-22 LAKER GIRLS



As the first NBA team to ever dance on the hardwood, the Laker Girls are back for their 43rd season.

It was the great Dr. Jerry Buss who knew a court had the power to be transformed into a stage. He was inspired by the collegiate look and spirit that existed at USC and UCLA in the late 1970s. So, he brought his vision to life by uniting former song leaders from both universities to form the first-ever Laker Girls squad in 1979 — the rest was history.

The most glamourous dance group in the NBA quickly became stars across the country — and then the world. Their style, charisma, and moves inspired trends in the music industry as well as the rest of the NBA to follow their lead and form dance teams of their own.

The Laker Girls have evolved into a team comprised of equal parts glamour and fierceness. As iconic as they will always be, each year is original — from all angles.

With the position considered a part-time job, each member of the Laker Girls is also involved in academic pursuits, theatrical & dance careers, or non-entertainment careers. But every year, members arrive with an unfaltering dedication to radiate love, energy, and passion, represent the Lakers, and serve as a means of connection between fans and the team. The 2021-22 squad is here and ready.

Beyond the dance floor, the Laker Girls have become ambassadors for the organization and NBA worldwide. While active in the local community with multiple appearances throughout the season at many non-profit and charitable functions, the Laker Girls have also been chosen to represent the NBA globally on the continents of Asia, Europe, and Australia. And the squad supports and visits our military troops in places abroad including Italy, Bosnia, Korea, Japan, Israel, and Sarajevo.

Dr. Jerry Buss brought 10 rings and the Laker Girls to Los Angeles. It's been over four decades and both teams are still integral parts of the city to this day.

STAPLES CENTER

STAPLES Center has undoubtedly developed an unrivaled reputation for excellence having established itself as the Sports and Entertainment Center of the World. Beginning twenty-two years ago with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band's opening night concert on October 17, 1999, more than 76 million guests have come to the AEG-owned and operated STAPLES Center to attend a schedule of prestigious concerts, sporting events, award shows, family shows and other major attractions unmatched by any arena.

As the home of four professional sports franchises, the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and Los Angeles Clippers, the NHL's Los Angeles Kings, and the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks, STAPLES Center has proven to be a home court advantage for the local teams with the Lakers capturing six NBA Championships and the Kings winning two Stanley Cup titles since 1999, while the Sparks captured back-to-back WNBA Championships in their first two STAPLES Center campaigns and brought home their third WNBA Championship in 2016.

STAPLES Center continues to distinguish itself as the host of major, high-profile events of national and international distinction including the 2004, 2011 & 2018 NBA All-Star Weekends, the 2002 & 2017 NHL All-Star Games and 2010 NHL Draft, 2002 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 2000 Democratic National Convention, 2009 ISU World Figure Skating Championships, 19 of the last 21 GRAMMY Award shows, 11 X Games competitions, four WTA Tour Championships, 12 Pac 12 Men's Basketball Championship tournaments, 2013 & 2018 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship West Regional, the Michael Jackson Public Memorial Service on July 7, 2009, Nipsey Hussle's Celebration of Life on April 11, 2019, Celebration of Life for Kobe and Gianna Bryant on February 24, 2020. Due to COVID-19 restrictions for the first-time event in the arena's 22-year history was able to host an official LA County Vote Center October 24 - November 3, 2020.

STAPLES Center's incredible history has been marked with performances and special events that brought international stature to Los Angeles' sports & entertainment legends including concerts starring Taylor Swift, Adele, Mana, Prince, U2, Garth Brooks, Beyoncé, Usher, Paul McCartney, Don Henley, Bon Jovi, Madonna, Christina Aguilera, Justin Timberlake, Phil Collins, The Rolling Stones, Dave Matthews, Britney Spears, Rod Stewart, Eric Clapton, Janet Jackson, Jay-Z, Simon & Garfunkel, Van Halen, Dixie Chicks, John Mayer, Shania Twain, Peter Gabriel, Ricky Martin, Tina Turner, Kanye West, Luis Miguel, Billy Joel, Lionel Ritchie, Reba McEntire, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Faith Hill & Tim McGraw, Kenny Chesney, Rod Stewart, Tool, Shakira, Depeche Mode, Cher, Bette Midler, Lady Gaga, Keith Urban, Mariah Carey, Eurythmics, Googoosh, The Police, Bob Seger, Lady Antebellum, Katy Perry, Marco Antonio Solis, and a Millennium New Year's Eve spectacular starring the Eagles, Jackson Browne and Linda Ronstadt; world championship boxing including Lennox Lewis vs. Vitali Klitschko for the World Heavyweight Championship and the first-ever Latin Grammy Awards. In addition, the arena has hosted multiple sold-out WWE dates, UFC events, over 25 nights of boxing, Disney on Ice, Walking with Dinosaurs and the Harlem Globetrotters.

STAPLES Center's charitable activities are a part of AEG 1Community and its AEG Community Foundation. AEG 1Community seeks to reach beyond the traditional boundaries of business to support the communities where the organization operates. AEG believes that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive and STAPLES Center strives to be civic leaders by working to improve the economic and social well-being of local communities where the company operates. Over the last 11 years, company-affiliated foundations and programs have contributed over $120 million in direct financial and in-kind support of charitable, community and civic programs that focus on children and youth in the areas of education, the arts and health and wellness. The AEG Community Foundation was established to build on AEG's unwavering commitment to serving children and families through grantmaking. The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts and health and wellness. We believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

STAPLES Center and L.A. LIVE serve as the hub for community engagement during the holiday season and support employee volunteerism activities such as a company-wide Day of Service. Through a partnership with City Year, employees volunteer to refurbish local public schools by providing supplies, painting, cleaning and gardening services. During AEG's Season of Giving, held throughout the month of December, the foundation spotlights more than two dozen local charities and community-based organizations and provides non-profits a platform to collect food, hold blood drives, register volunteers, educate the public and sign up mentors.

STAPLES Center has been designed with the fans of Los Angeles in mind. Guests who attend events are treated to the finest entertainment experience imaginable. The arena has free public Wi-Fi, over 840 Toshiba flat panel televisions and (as part of a specially designed $1.5 million facility-wide sound system) and 675 separate speakers outside of the seating area, so fans never miss any of the sights or sounds of a STAPLES Center event. Also featured is a $2 million specialty lighting package and other state-of-the-art amenities. In 2010, STAPLES Center unveiled its new $10 million center-hung video LIVE 4HD Scoreboard specially designed for the arena.

Along STAPLES Center's five concourses are 23 refreshment stands offering a variety of dining choices including the Smokehouse BBQ on City View Terrace, a one-of-a-kind outdoor dining experience with a spectacular view of L.A. LIVE and the downtown Los Angeles skyline. The TEAM LA store located on the main concourse is a retail store featuring official merchandise from the teams and events that call STAPLES Center home with satellite locations throughout the facility and L.A. LIVE. Finally, the arena provides 55 public restrooms including three family restrooms.

Perhaps the greatest emphasis throughout STAPLES Center's development has been the recruitment and training of its guest services and security staff. The STAPLES Center experience is second-to-none from the entertainment environment to the staff's commitment to making every guest's visit a memorable one. Never before has an arena had the amenities, features and commitment to quality service that STAPLES Center offers to the fans and the City of Los Angeles. STAPLES Center continues to set new standards for the arena industry. Located directly across the street from STAPLES Center is L.A. LIVE, a one-of-a-kind sports and entertainment district in downtown Los Angeles. The four million square foot destination features Microsoft Theater, The GRAMMY Museum, Conga Room and The Novo, giving L.A. LIVE 'more music per square foot' than any other location in the world. The district offers a rich mix of local, regional and national restaurants including Yard House, Katsuya, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar, Rock 'N Fish, Tom's Watch Bar, Smashburger, Patxi's Pizza, Starbucks, Savoca, BOCA at the Conga Room, WP24 and others. L.A. LIVE also features 100,000 square feet of special event and hospitality space and the famous Lucky Strike Lanes and Lounge. The development also includes a 54-story, 1,001-room convention "headquarters" hotel (combining JW Marriott and ¬The Ritz-Carlton brands and 224 luxury condominiums – The Ritz Carlton Residences at L.A. LIVE.), the 14-screen Regal L.A. LIVE, along with ESPN's West Coast broadcast headquarters. Also home to annual award shows including the American Music Awards, EMMYS, ESPYS and BET Awards, L.A.
